Important information you should know

- It is the aim of Arc @ UNSW Limited ('Arc') to recognise and honour the valuable and exemplary volunteer service of over 25 years by Mr Heinz Harant to the University of New South Wales ('UNSW'), through the presentation of the Heinz Harant Award.
- Nominations may be accepted from the following:
  - A student member of Arc; or
  - An associate member of Arc; or
  - An alumni member of Arc; or
  - A staff member of Arc; or
  - A staff member of UNSW
- All nominations must be accompanied by a seconder.
- Nominators, seconders and referees may be interviewed as part of the determination of the Heinz Harant Award.
- Please provide the contact details of the nominee, nominator and seconder and the contact details of all referees. Referees may include Arc Managers or staff.
- We may invite the parents/ guardian of each nominee to attend Arc's Annual Dinner. The nominator must provide the nominee's parents/ guardian's mobile number and if possible their email address.
- Self-nomination is unacceptable. If it is found that a nominee has written their own nomination they will be excluded from the deliberations. Nominators may however liaise with the nominee to obtain required information.
- Arc will provide a list of the Arc volunteer programs the nominee has been involved in, to the Nominations and Remuneration Subcommittee for consideration.
- The Nominations and Remuneration Subcommittee will NOT consider non-Arc activities. Please do not discuss these activities on the nomination form.

Due Date

Nominations open on 9AM Monday, 23rd July 2018 and close at 4pm Thursday, 28th March 2019. Please note that late nominations will not be accepted.
