*Organising Team members are expected to be available to assist with Squad Leader interviews across the 5-day period. Exact amounts of availability are dependent on applications received.

** Organising Team members are expected to be available to assist with T3 O-Week for at least two days. However, non-availability will not preclude you from being successful.

*** Organising Team members are expected to be available for at least four half-day sessions to assist with Yellow Shirt interviews.

Nb: All dates are subject to change in light of current circumstances, however, this would occur after discussion and agreement by members of the Organising Team.

Compulsory dates mean full in-person attendance for the required duration unless there are unexpected and extenuating circumstances. Society commitments, concerts and adjustable work are not reasons for non-physical attendance.
