WHAT’S ON UNSW PUZZLES + REVIEWS S1W13 GIVE AWAYS + MORE 2012

blitz

S CLUB PARTY
Jo and Bradley never stopped movin'

MOVIE MAGIC
The Best of the Sydney Film Festival

CENTRE STAGE
Go clubbing with...NUTS

WIN
S CLUB TIX
MISFITS DVDS + MORE

BOGANS, GOTHs AND HIPSTERS: OH MY!
END OF SESSION PARTY: BRIDGING THE SOCIAL DIVIDE IN THE ROUNDHOUSE’S BACKYARD

BROUGHT TO YOU BY
ATC UNSW Student Life
welcome

The Blitz Team’s Wise Words

Antonia Shuttleworth
Blitz Editor

Come something you do when you’re alone that you wouldn’t do in front of others. I have no phone, but I’ve been told that I really shouldn’t eat in front of others. Apparently the speed and volume can be alarming for observers. Also take a photograph of the event, the same time, why are they watching me? We can...

What are your plans for the break?
Break into the Blitz office and decorate.

Katy Kennett
Blitz Designer

How do most people react when you tell them you don’t have exams? [CPDA kids don’t have exams,] They’ve been known to drop the odd c-bomb and other vulgar profanities.

If you could have grown up anywhere else in the world where would it be?
In the mountains in Switzerland. The place is incredible.

Jacob Burkett
Blitz Reporter

What is your favourite thing to dress up as?
After the 11th of July, I love a Jester.

Name 3 things you associate with exercise: Confidence, caution, depression.

What is the best faculty of UNSW and why?
The best faculty is the Arts Faculty, because they accept everyone, no matter what race or AVAR.

Henry Cornwell
Blitz Reporter

Where you’ll be spending the holidays:
I am not sure where. Probably the odd island, England, Germany and maybe some Italian states. Thanks for the tips Caro!

Summer vacation: 5 in 10 words or less:
Where all the time go? Who is your celebrity crush? Charlie Sheen.

07 A Quickie With... S Club
Blitz tracked down the stars and caught up with S Club’s Jon and Bradley on their way to bringing it all back to the Roundhouse this Friday.

08 From Bogan to Sofia: Bridging The Social Divide
There’s more to bogans than scaling BBQs and sunburnt, this week, we press for the EOS Backyard Party. Blitz breaks down barriers between bogans, emo,nerds, hipsters and college kids.

11 What’s On Guide
Make the most of your last week of semester before study break by hitting up the last Session Backyard Party on Thursday and S Club on Friday and then suit up the best library in Sydney to lockdown during study break.

16 College Confidential + AU Revoir
Natalia Karam

17 Just Like The Movies
Check out our Sydney Film Festival picks so that you don’t waste two precious hours of study on a bad nick.

18 Reviews

20 Puzzles + Jobs + Opa

21 Go Clubbing with... NUTS
We put the award-winning NSW University Theatre Society in the spotlight.

WIN ME!

IF YOU ANSWERED YES TO ALL THESE QUESTIONS
DO THE Arc 2012 STUDENT SURVEY

Go to arc.unsw.edu.au for more info
Study in London Presentation

Shangri La Hotel (CBD), Sydney Tuesday 12th June at 7pm

This presentation will provide information on programmes of study, the application process, Australian scholarship opportunities and life in London.

King’s College London is one of the world’s top 30 universities.*

Places are limited, please register by Monday 4th June via the web link below

*QS World University Rankings 2011

www.kcl.ac.uk/australia
WATCH OUT FOR CONTACT'S AMAZING FREEBIES AROUND CAMPUS IN WEEK 12 & 13

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

randomacts@unsw.edu.au/volunteer

a quickie with S CLUB

THE 90S POP SENSATION GET READY TO BRING IT ALL BACK TO THE ROUNDHOUSE

Despite band break-ups and the odd solo career, the Brit-pop favourite have reunited to prove that there still ain't no party like an S Club party – and in particular, notorious uni parties.

It might just be the biggest pop band revival in recent years, with founding members Bradley McIntosh, Jo O'Meara and Paul Cattermole all returning to perform in what will be their first ever live Australian gig this Friday at the Roundhouse. They may have mixed up their line up, but their famous hits that had you dancing in your lounge room as a 13-year-old remain as catchy as ever.

Leading lady Jo told Bitz how excited she is about the UNSW gig “University shows are always the craziest and most fun”, while frontman Bradley believes that college shows are always more special. “Students are often telling us how a gig brings back a whole lot of their memories as a lot, so the performance bands to always double as a trip down memory lane.”

The S Club obsession exploded onto the scene in 1999 with the single ‘Bring It All Back Now’ and an NTV series ‘Miami’? Jo revealed how nothing could have prepared her for what followed; “I don’t think any of us could have seen the success coming, I remember the show aired and the next day I went to a mall and had to get a police escort out!”

Bradley knows how she felt; “When I went to the mall, they had to shut the whole of it down because it got too crowded - once I was out, they decided it was safe to open it again”.

Bradley admits the band's whirlwind success is a 'blur', particularly memories of time spent in Sydney. "We were here for a TV performance and I think some promo work. It's tough to remember; everything is a blur looking back at it now. I was recently looking at my passport and couldn't believe half of the places that I've been to!"

The S Club Franchise was huge and the pair proudly state that they have no regrets from their time in the limelight. "I can safely say that I wouldn't change anything - except maybe the times when we were constantly touring (as) we occasionally chose to stay at our hotel instead of partying - maybe I'd change those decisions?" Jo admits.

With new kids on the block being fame-monster One Direction, we felt it was necessary to ask who would win a showdown between the two British pop groups. "There would be no contest! We're newer, more experienced - and have a girl" Bradley stated. "I wouldn't be afraid to wrestle them either", Jo stated.

The pair revealed they have surprises in store for their upcoming Roundhouse performance on June 1st (the last day of Semester 1) - but we couldn't get them to reveal what those were, no matter how much we persuaded them, so make sure you grab a ticket from premier.ticketek.com.au or have a go at our comp below to go and find out for yourself.

THE BREAK-UP BREAKDOWN:

- 1999
  - Jo, Bradley, Hannah, Paul, Jon, Tai and Rachel form S Club 7 and release 'Bring It All Back Now' and Miami?
- 2002
  - Paul leaves and S Club 7 become S Club 3.
- 2003
  - Burning up live on stage, S Club call it quits.

2003-2008
- In the interim, Rachel and Jo each had successful solo careers and jumped on the media TV bandwagon. Hannah went on to star on 'Pompano Beach', Joel was planning to release an album for a few years now but no date set.

Of the boys, Jon's had a string of appearances on UK TV shows and theatre productions, and Bradley and Paul took a DJ course together.

2008
- Jo, Bradley and Paul reunite on S Club 3 reunion tour.

2012
- S Club and Big Bang bring the party to our very own Roundhouse.

WIN YOUR CHANCE TO WIN:

For your chance to score a Double Pass to see S Club on Friday June 1st at the Roundhouse, upload a picture of yourself to facebook.com/bitzmag channeling your inner S Club member by Thursday 5pm.

• Jacob Burtett
At last, the end of semester’s upon us. However, emotions are running high, as this week’s the last chance at tutes to gaze wistfully into the eyes of that babe across the room. If you’re lucky enough to pick up that cutie from class at the End of Semester Roundhouse Backyard party, how can you keep them occupied this winter break?

At the EOS you’ll both be checked out in full bogan attire, but what to say that’s really him or she is on the inside? Perhaps there’s not that much of a difference. BBQs and backyard cricket, and underneath that layer of fake tan there’s a sad, sun-drenched look for your loved one or for you looking for someone to spend the winter break with. While the most obvious answer to the challenge presented by frosty weather plus your surroundings, or lack thereof, is to head indoors, you also have to eat, drink and maintain a social connection.

The way to do this, door runners is to identify subcultures and box them into it. They’ll try to prove “No! I’m an individual! Just because I wear skinny jeans/face tan doesn’t mean I’m a hipster/bogan. I don’t listen, people go for subculturally identifiable hooks like jeans to honey, so capitalise on this and they’ll love you forever.”

HIPSTERS

The good thing about hipster is that they’re open minded. So long as it’s not too mainstream, they’re happy to engage with you on just about anything. Even if it is mainstream, but they’re being ironic and they’ll love it. Keep them satisfied with a steady flow of art, local bands, healthy drinks and alcohol over the break - easy. Hit them with your sister’s HSC art assignments and they’ll get hooked on “the deeper meaning” and take it to your ranking band and they’ll flow. The fact that nobody else has heard of them. Most importantly, never rub them up their double standards or pretentiousness.

NERDS

Don’t let this stereotype put you off - nerds are the sweetest (and sometimes most adventurous) kids out there. They’ll also be super-stoked that a catch like you would even notice them. So make sure you give them time to do their own thing every once in a while. Remember also that it’s not limited to material things: 50% of life in the uni break is Second Life, and you need to respect that. Be ready to accept that a relationship in an alternative dimension isn’t the same as two-living.

COLLEGE KIDS

I don’t wanna generalise and they’re fine, but come Semester 2 they’ll be back to 24-hour pajamas and incessant college parties. But hey, at least you have the winter. You can head back to their freezing country town and help them milk the cows, shear the sheep and whatever else it is that you do on a farm.

GOTHS/EMOS

We all know that goths and emos are the same thing, and yet one of the biggest things in uni life is to call a goth an emo, or an emo a goth. But I digress. If you actually score that skinny, microbladed party bogan or guy (I know it sounds unlikely, but they exist, I’ve seen them), how will you spend your break? The good thing about winter is they’re less likely to be afraid of going out and getting a tan, so they’ll be more open than usual to activities. Like hipsters, they prefer things that are unique, such as stick to galleries and weird bars.

BOGANS

There’s no shortage of bogans at the Roundhouse Backyard Party, so don’t be surprised if you pick up close and personal with one of them. But don’t let the spotty teeth, crackpot politics or political incorrectness put you off. Bogans have heaps of fun and are the most consistently without opinions or other fears of consequence or of what people might think. No idea is too crazy for a bogan. Pogo sticks on tramlines? Sane. Right-wing anti-racism competitions? Why not. For a dusty night in Star City. The only downside will be either dealing with the exes with them in the future, or ending the relationship when they move to the mines, so enjoy it while you can.

Without inhibitions or other fears of consequence or of what people might think, no idea is too crazy for a bogan.
WHAT IS A WOMAN?
FREE TO ENTER CHANCE TO EXHIBIT WIN PRIZES

The Women’s Collective look for creative contributions. Think photography, painting, a sketch, sculpture or any other medium you wish to delve into.

SEND ENTRIES BY FRI 3 AUG 2012
u.lobo@arc.unsw.edu.au

END OF SESSION PARTY
Backyard BBQ Bonanza

WHAT’S ON UNSW
28TH MAY – 3RD JUN

Celebrate the winter break with a blistering backyard party at The Roundhouse

Everyone’s girl that friend who hops the fence at a barbie. Land for good reason, they’ve got mad skills or that friend who always brings extra drinks, knowing that you’re too lazy to organise your own. This Thursday night, The Roundhouse is that friend. So come early and come keen for a great night.

Your best mate The Roundhouse is transforming into a massive indoor backyard this Thursday 31 May for the biggest Backyard Party ever. That and nixed kid with the yellow sunglasses that nobody remembers the name of invited everyone over at the end of primary school.

Celebrate being a mad nerd and surviving kilometres 1 by sniping bogan fashion, street cricket, ludicrously skilled live bands and some dangerously talented DJs.

You may at times mistake the Roundhouse for your mate’s place, as it’ll be choc-a-block with backyard props like hills hoists, dodgy couches and pakeke fences.

For those hitting the freshest for exams the mysteries you make this night will keep you warm through your winter studies, and for anyone without exams you have no excuse not to come and tear it up, bogan style, all night long.

WHEN: Thursday May 31st from 5pm
WHERE: Roundhouse
PRICE: Free before 8pm / after 8pm $5 Arv / $10 UNSW / $15 GA

VERDICT: Every bogan and his dog will be at the End of Session Party.

LIKE FRIENDS WITH BENEFITS?
Reach for the stars at The Roundhouse

S CLUB AND BIG BROVAS

Despite your tough, poor student exterior, we know that you’re still a bubbly 13-year-old girl on the inside - that goes for you too boys.

In 1999 our lives changed forever when S Club stormed the top charts, stole our breath with their biggest dance routines, and our hearts – don’t deny it, everyone wanted a piece of Bradley and Rachel (or was it Hannah)! Now in 2012 our very own Roundhouse is hosting the reunion tour that S Club have been waiting for, “bring it all back now”.

Jo, Bradley and Paul have brought a few of their friends from Big Brovas along to show us that there still “is no party like an S Club party”, so let’s pay ‘em back by thanking them that there isn’t no party like a UNSW party.

WHEN: Friday June 1st 8pm
WHERE: The Roundhouse
PRICE: $61 + BF from ticketek.com.au or free if you win our $10 competition!
THE BLITZ

Sometimes the key to productive study isn’t about technique or time management, it’s about finding a space where you won’t be distracted, cold or bored.

Library Loving

STATE LIBRARY

Opening hours: Monday to Thursday 9am-7pm / Friday 9am-6pm / Weekends 10am-5pm

Pros
- Fantastic location for post-study shopping, movies, opera and study.
- It’s a superb productivity library because you can borrow anything, you have to do all of your work there.
- People are really nice about being quiet there, so again, you will actually do work.

Cons
- There will be a thousand Year 12 students staring at blackboards.
- The security can seem a bit intense.
- Requisitioning books can be annoying.

LAW LIBRARY

Opening hours: Monday to Friday 9am-7pm / Weekends 10am-5pm

Pros
- You look really cool and smart and the bathrooms are really nice.
- Presence of the Aztec/Paleo busy stops.
- It’s right next to the Roundhouse for those times when you just want to kick back.

Cons
- It’s not a massive uni but the uni is well connected to the Roundhouse, UNSW has claimed Bondi as its own and with the Beach Road Hotel always containing a crowd of foreigners, exchange students as well as local experts you should definitely be getting involved.

WOOLLAHMRA LIBRARY

20 South South Road, Double Bay Opening hours: Monday to Friday 9am-7pm / Weekends 10am-6pm

Pros
- It’s a beautiful historic house with a gorgeous garden and view of Sydney Harbour.
- The Library. Right next to Paddington pool.

Cons
- It’s a little out of the way
- It’s a little out of the way
- Some rooms are empty
- Some rooms are very busy

UNSW LIBRARY

Opening hours: Monday to Friday 9am-7pm / Weekends 10am-5pm

Pros
- It was recently redecorated in orange tones for productivity and happiness.
- There are all kinds of variations of tables, rooms, study areas and couches to grab.
- It’s where everyone goes so all of your friends will be there (also possibly a lot).

Cons
- The lifts are super slow.
- It’s a super crowded location.
- Study areas can be really busy.

Find it stressful to think of people sleeping or freaking out in the library you choose to frequent, and let us know which one works best for you by uploading it to our FB page. Good luck for exams muffins!

WINTER SHOPPING

Razzles Markets

Every Saturday and Sunday, 9am-6pm

Pros
- You’ll find vintage clothing, rare books and CDs, as well as an array of boat shoes for the more hipster-like shoppers.

Cons
- It’s not as big as the major markets.
- There isn’t much variety.

Beach Rd Hotel

Every Friday night after 7pm

Pros
- A great night out in the city.
- There isn’t much food.
- There isn’t much food.
- It’s a little out of the way

Cons
- It’s a little out of the way
- It’s a little out of the way
- It’s a little out of the way

WINTER BEACHING

Beach Rd Hotel

Every Friday night after 7pm

Pros
- A great night out in the city.
- There isn’t much food.
- There isn’t much food.
- It’s a little out of the way

Cons
- It’s a little out of the way
- It’s a little out of the way
- It’s a little out of the way

WINTER VOLUNTEERING

Dog walking

Various times

Pros
- It’s easy to take your dog and walk.
- It’s easy to take your dog and walk.
- It’s easy to take your dog and walk.

Cons
- It’s easy to take your dog and walk.
- It’s easy to take your dog and walk.
- It’s easy to take your dog and walk.

Nine Sons of Dan

15th July, 7pm

1. Get 1000 $2/$4, or book in first by scoring the code to the left with the following code: "$2-4_Markus_34_Daniel"

2. Book in first by scoring the code to the left with the following code: "$2-4_Markus_34_Daniel"

3. Place up to 2 items around the Colonial style period after before your collection date.

4. Collect all your mail and make sure you are ready to deliver.

5. For more information, phone Council’s Call Centre on 1300 722 542 or go to www.randwick.nsw.gov.au

The At Nighter. The worst if you want to fall asleep during it, before being asked to leave. A shame if I’d walk across the front of the lecture theatre with onlookers shaking their heads in disapproval would follow. Don’t be that person, prepare yourself -by studying at least two days before.

Cry and in sorrow. It won’t be that bad. There are lecture slides online and your smartest friend is on call willing to give advice.

Mistake confidence with arrogance. I don’t need to study to pass. I have no other thing of importance this year”, are famous last words of my friend. You’ll go from studying Spacecraft Engineering to working in the workshop at Kensington Cafe with that attitude. Just think there’s everything wrong with Kensington Cafe I just mean - you know what I mean.

Overthink everything and end up missing the date. So if you’ve been preparing for weeks and you know your notes like the back of your hand, but when you walk into your Theatre exam your first question is: “What? (you’re supposed to be doing? Oh-Deity Death) tan that where and when your test takes place is the first and last thing you do.

Relax on your cheating addictions. You have notes on the inner side of your pencil case, between the welts of your fingers and on the back of your tea. Just having your cheat sheet in your hand will hand you your final grade, dragging you out of the exam by your hair. Well that’s exaggerating but to be honest I’d take hair pulling over being kicked out of uni. Stay smart kids, you don’t want to end up at Kensington Cafe. Why do those people so much?
Au Revoir Arc Chair 2011/12

For the last year we've loved having Natalie Karam, Arc Chair, at our Table – our Table of Contents that is. Nat's shared some final words of wisdom with us before she sits her last UNSW exams and jumps on a plane to grow-up-land.

How has uni compared to what you expected?
It's been a massive journey – I never thought that I'd meet so many people and get involved with Uni as much as I have. How would you recommend UNSW to a future student?
We have the best degrees and the best student experience [read bars and clubs/associations] of any Australian uni. Which Disney character are you?
Peter Pan – I don't want to grow up and I never NZ/UNSW. Where will I take you next?
I'm flying out to New York City for summer school and then exploring Latin America. After that, I'm going on exchange at the University of Hong Kong for a year and then moving to London indefinitely. More broadly speaking I'd love to eventually work in law and economic development with developing countries.
What will they write in your obituary?
Her motto was work hard, play hard. It probably killed her in the end, but she wouldn't have wanted to live her life in any other way. That shit cray. To your own life what would you come back as?
In the words of Bart Simpson, "A butterfly because nobody suspects the butterfly."

Be that butterfly Nat.

Beau & The Geek Australia

Are you single?
Are you up for some fun?
Are you between 18-30 years old?

APPLY TO: www.beauandthegreek.com.au

On the Road

Liberal Arts

Amour

Michael Hoffman's (Love, the White Ribbon) was great for every movie he does, and this won't be released in cinemas for at least another half year, so I suggest you stop everything and go see it while you have the chance.

Liberal Arts

If you're a fan of How I Met Your Mother, this movie not only stars but was directed and written by Ted (Jason Segel). Is he as funny in the movie as he is on TV?

Goodbye

One of three Iranian films at the festival this year, and you never know! A Separation did last year (here, I won an Oscar) you might want to add it to your 'must see' list. If you catch my drift. Director Mohammad Rasoulof was imprisoned by the Iranian authorities in 2010, and Goodbye mirrors his own story about a female lawyer whose licence is revoked by the government.

Alps

I don't know if you've seen much Greek cinema, it's heavy stuff, by which I mean it's disturbing and emotional way, not like horror movie Faoyc Alp is the new film by Yorgos Lanthimos, whose Dogtooth was one of the Newest and strangest, but very incredible, movies I've ever seen. Get your kicks from confronting cinema. This is for you.

Mabo

Any law students reading? Watching this movie saves you having to read the case in Public and Constitutional Law and Property... Sorry couldn't resist.

Just Like In The Movies

Screw Exams – Prepare for Popcorn and Premiers; The Sydney Film Festival is coming to a cinema near you!

First off, let's face the cold, hard truth: this year's Sydney Film Festival line-up is probably (gulp) not as good as last year's. But it's still the coolest Aussie film-goers get to Cannes or Sundance. Attending the Sydney Film Festival ups your movie hipster levels considerably; choose wisely and you can see films still being talked about months later.

What's that you say? The festival is in exam time? Not to worry – BILLY has gone through and picked out the highlights, so you can balance your study with explosions of cinematic goodness. You're welcome. See you in the aisles.

Amour

Michael Hoffman's (Love, the White Ribbon) was great for every movie he does, and this won't be released in cinemas for at least another half year, so I suggest you stop everything and go see it while you have the chance.

Liberal Arts

If you're a fan of How I Met Your Mother, this movie not only stars but was directed and written by Ted (Jason Segel). Is he as funny in the movie as he is on TV?

Goodbye

One of three Iranian films at the festival this year, and you never know! A Separation did last year (here, I won an Oscar) you might want to add it to your 'must see' list. If you catch my drift. Director Mohammad Rasoulof was imprisoned by the Iranian authorities in 2010, and Goodbye mirrors his own story about a female lawyer whose licence is revoked by the government.

Alps

I don't know if you've seen much Greek cinema, it's heavy stuff, by which I mean it's disturbing and emotional way, not like horror movie Faoyc Alp is the new film by Yorgos Lanthimos, whose Dogtooth was one of the Newest and strangest, but very incredible, movies I've ever seen. Get your kicks from confronting cinema. This is for you.

Mabo

Any law students reading? Watching this movie saves you having to read the case in Public and Constitutional Law and Property... Sorry couldn't resist.

Just Like In The Movies

Screw Exams – Prepare for Popcorn and Premiers; The Sydney Film Festival is coming to a cinema near you!

First off, let's face the cold, hard truth: this year's Sydney Film Festival line-up is probably (gulp) not as good as last year's. But it's still the coolest Aussie film-goers get to Cannes or Sundance. Attending the Sydney Film Festival ups your movie hipster levels considerably; choose wisely and you can see films still being talked about months later.

What's that you say? The festival is in exam time? Not to worry – BILLY has gone through and picked out the highlights, so you can balance your study with explosions of cinematic goodness. You're welcome. See you in the aisles.

Amour

Michael Hoffman's (Love, the White Ribbon) was great for every movie he does, and this won't be released in cinemas for at least another half year, so I suggest you stop everything and go see it while you have the chance.

Liberal Arts

If you're a fan of How I Met Your Mother, this movie not only stars but was directed and written by Ted (Jason Segel). Is he as funny in the movie as he is on TV?

Goodbye

One of three Iranian films at the festival this year, and you never know! A Separation did last year (here, I won an Oscar) you might want to add it to your 'must see' list. If you catch my drift. Director Mohammad Rasoulof was imprisoned by the Iranian authorities in 2010, and Goodbye mirrors his own story about a female lawyer whose licence is revoked by the government.

Alps

I don't know if you've seen much Greek cinema, it's heavy stuff, by which I mean it's disturbing and emotional way, not like horror movie Faoyc Alp is the new film by Yorgos Lanthimos, whose Dogtooth was one of the Newest and strangest, but very incredible, movies I've ever seen. Get your kicks from confronting cinema. This is for you.

Mabo

Any law students reading? Watching this movie saves you having to read the case in Public and Constitutional Law and Property... Sorry couldn't resist.

Just Like In The Movies

Screw Exams – Prepare for Popcorn and Premiers; The Sydney Film Festival is coming to a cinema near you!

First off, let's face the cold, hard truth: this year's Sydney Film Festival line-up is probably (gulp) not as good as last year's. But it's still the coolest Aussie film-goers get to Cannes or Sundance. Attending the Sydney Film Festival ups your movie hipster levels considerably; choose wisely and you can see films still being talked about months later.

What's that you say? The festival is in exam time? Not to worry – BILLY has gone through and picked out the highlights, so you can balance your study with explosions of cinematic goodness. You're welcome. See you in the aisles.
REVIEWS

THINGS BOGANS LIKE
http://thingsboganslike.com/

Having traded their hits for book deals and cash, the writers of Things Bogans Like have just about called it quits on their blog. With more than a month between each post and a page called "The Full List", it seems they've running out of ideas.

The latest post hides solid wit with humour under a veil of faux-intellectual grammatical incoherency, comically (though I fear unintentionally) offset by maudlinings like "meaning". It's also too long to really keep you interested.

The second last post was great, but over six months old. With so much on their plates (as they apologise for not having posted for so long) should we blame them? Yes. In that time, we've written four major essays and imbled over 80 litres of alcohol per student: if they're not going to maintain a high standard, they should stop. Having said that, the web is a ladder place without them, so I'll prefer it if they're just shape up.

If you really want to know what bogans like, find out for yourself: Baccy down to ABCD, Cold Chisel and cheap bourbon and coke while you're at it. Only at The Roundhouse, this Thursday night.

---

MADAME TUSSAUDS
B Darling Harbour

The Sydney Madame Tussauds Wax Museum is cheesy fun all its best. With worldwide museums, Darling Harbour's exhibition brings a local touch of celebrity where Dali, Elvis, Nicole, and even all alf a giri is a look-in.

The well thought-out and interactive set up means that you can't lose your dreams of horror with Breefy, cowering with MjL, or chatting with Oprah. At times you feel like a flailing idiot, so go with a friend who's not judging you when you don a matching Marilyn dress to pose with her atop of an active air vent.

Contrary to common belief, touching is allowed. Like a night out in the Commons, personal space is non-existent and groping is expected. This interactivity bars you a good spot at the remarkable 2D measurement detail of the models, showing your face right into those of lifelike and life.

It's a great place to muck around, and you can avoid queues and other goers by visiting midweek. With $25 concession prices (online) and possible up-coming midweek specials, this is an all-out celebrity dress-up dream.

---

STRANGE INTERLUDE
B Belvoir Street Theatre

When I heard there'd be sexual tension and nudity in this 15th century reenactment of Eugene O'Neill's 1920s classics, I thought, "Great, more Belvoir balls!". Coupled with the fact that watching O'Neill's other "masterwork", Long Day's Journey into Night, was the most boring set of hours of my life, I was ready for a dry night.

By the end of Mitchell Butler's opening monologues I was won over, but I was sure that at least some of the other actors would be had, and that the story would turn boring soon enough. True wrong - the entire cast performed exceptionally. The acting, coupled with director and playwright Simon Stone's honest appropriation of the script for a modern audience ensured that those who were watching could relate to every character - even as they betrayed one another.

This performance sets the standard for Sydney's theatre. Never again should we settle for anything less than thought-provoking, entraining entertainment. No more accepting a performance as "good enough for a day". Even if you're not a fan of the theatre, you have to see this.

---

MISFITS SEASON THREE
ABC 2

Our favourite chaos and thugs with superpowers are back in community service and this season there's romance, power swapping, gender swapping and, wait for it, Nazis - what more can you ask for.

For those coming to Misfits, Season Three is a bit of a do-over with one of the core characters from the previous two seasons, Nathan, taking a hike. In his place we've gifted Rudi, a similarly anime, smart-mouthed dickhead who thinks he's God's gift to women. It's amazing.

These (with gutless, base, drums and vocals come together like the warm, sleepy and a day at the beach. There are no studio effects, which is a relief for this (also music. Real instruments are stripped back to the point where you can hear fingers grasping up and down guitar strings.

The show start of "Lost in the Light", building up to the wet, surfer reverb of "Okay Alright, I'm Alive" makes the perfect album for starting a day or ending a night. With a guest appearance by Monica I've (I'm not sure) it's a plot. When and your girlfriend goes on holidays without you, "I'm alive" is the perfect song to cry yourself to sleep to.

---

BARCHORD
Bahamas

This is the soundtrack of the summer that we spent out on. Barchord is a beautifully packaged album whose title evokes its simplicity but underestimates its reach.

These chilled out guitar, bass, drums and vocals come together like the warm, sleepy and a day at the beach. There are no studio effects, which is a relief for this style of music. Real instruments are stripped back to the point where you can hear fingers grasping up and down guitar strings.

The show start of "Lost in the Light", building up to the wet, surfer reverb of "Okay Alright, I'm Alive" makes the perfect album for starting a day or ending a night. With a guest appearance by Monica I've (I'm not sure) it's a plot. When and your girlfriend goes on holidays without you, "I'm alive" is the perfect song to cry yourself to sleep to.

---

DARK SHADOWS
Starring: Johnny Depp, Helena Bonham Carter, Eva Green

Dark Shadows isn't a bad film; however it's not particularly good either. This is Tim Burton's eighth film starring Johnny Depp, and at this stage in the game he is simply doing up the same trick he has so many times before.

Based on the 1970s gothic soap opera of the same name, the film spins the tale of Barnabus Collins (Depp), who is buried alive and transformed into a vampire by the witch Angelique (Eva Green) following romantic rejection. Escaping from his grave in 1972, what follows are a series of loose events as Barnabas adjusts to a new era and dysfunctional family members.

What I liked was the under-rehearsed remaining cast, especially new govern-ess Victoria, played by Austin Stoll Heathcote, who is prominent in the opening and then rarely seen til the final few scenes.

A fine film, but please Tim, enough with the Johnny Depp show. I'm over it.
WORD SEARCH

T L I
N O B
U G R

SUDOKU

```
2 9 6 3
6 1 5 8
7 8 1 5
```

For solutions visit www.sudoku-puzzles.net.

Q&A

Go NUTS with

NSW UNIVERSITY THEATRE SOCIETY

Ever broken into tears to get an extension on an assignment? Or perhaps “my dog ate my homework” has actually worked for you? If so, Hollywood might not seem too far away, but your first step towards stardom in the acting business starts here at UNSW with award-winning society NUTS, our resident theatre troupe.

Bitz caught up with 2012 NUTS president Jules Kelly who gave us the production notes on how to get centre stage at UNSW.

TRIVIA by CONTACT

01. What is Anahid's favorite flower?
02. What is the most commonly stolen book from public libraries?
03. A new study has found that Aussies have more what than their British counterparts?
04. What was Mickey Mouse's original name?
05. Where is the optometry clinic located on UNSW?

CELLAR SUPERVISOR

Where's your favorite place to eat, drink and be merry on campus? The Roundhouse! If you love to spend more time there, are you seeking a confident cellar supervisor with previous experience in stock control and cellar maintenance? You might be the one we're looking for!

Shoot your applications to jobs@uns.edu.au, by June 1st, and contact Michael (mih@email) at cellar@uns.edu.au for more info.

GLOBAL VILLAGE STUDENT COORDINATOR

Are you better at planning a trip than STA? Do you have a passion for adventure, aid and the A+ team? As the Global Village Student Coordinator, you oversee the Global Village Volunteer Program - organizing short-term volunteering opportunities for students in overseas developing communities. If you have further questions after checking the website, email Kate (kate@email) at global@uns.edu.au and send applications to jobs@uns.edu.au by Wednesday 11th July.

JOB DROUGHT?

If all of your friends heading overseas and you need something to keep you busy over the break? List your skills in services here and (almost) all the casuals and new friends will come pouring in.

You can even list when / where / how you want to work and for more info, head to, and conditions, visit www.foodwork.com.au.

In a NUTSHELL

• 2012 is the 27th year of NUTS, making it one of UNSW's oldest and most prestigious societies.

• NUTS has been awarded Art Club of the Year twice in the last five years, in 2008 and again in 2012. Will they take out the title again this year?

GO TO PAGE 23 TO SEE IF YOU ARE AS SMART AS YOUR FATHERS TELL YOU

GOING TO PAGE 23 TO SEE IF YOU ARE AS SMART AS YOUR PARENTS TELL YOU

Provided by the good looking staff at CONTACT, the go to place at UNSW for information and referrals. Go visit them – U3, Quad East, wing 0348 5800 or email contact@uns.edu.au

WWW

For more Jobs and Opportunities head to: jobs@uns.edu.au

& OPs of the week

NSW UNIVERSITY THEATRE SOCIETY

- Bitz caught up with 2012 NUTS president Jules Kelly who gave us the production notes on how to get centre stage at UNSW.

- Ever broken into tears to get an extension on an assignment? Or perhaps “my dog ate my homework” has actually worked for you? If so, Hollywood might not seem too far away, but your first step towards stardom in the acting business starts here at UNSW with award-winning society NUTS, our resident theatre troupe.

- NUTS has been awarded Art Club of the Year twice in the last five years, in 2008 and again in 2012. Will they take out the title again this year?
VOXPOPS

» Voice of the Peeps

THANKS TO AMISH BICENTETH PUBLICITY

WIN 1 OF 3 DOUBLE PASSES TO A CHORUS LINE

A Chorus Line tells the tale of 17 dancers desperately auditioning for eight stage roles in a musical. In an empty theatre, on a bare stage, this audition is the chance of a lifetime. It’s what they’ve worked for – with every drop of sweat, every hour of practice, every minute of every day of their lives. Their personal human stories are told through catchy songs, moving drama and stunning choreography.

From 20 July, Capitol Theatre, for 21 performances. Ticketmaster 1300 727 439 www.capitoltheatre.com.au

Email your student number to comp@arc.unsw.edu.au with a Chorus Line / That’s My Boy / Spider-Man in the subject line.

THANKS TO SONY PICTURES RELEASES

WIN 1 OF 20 DOUBLE PASSES TO
THAT’S MY BOY

While in his teens, Donny (Candice) fathered a son, Todd (Combani), and raised him as a single parent up until Todd’s 18th birthday. Now after not seeing each other for years, Todd’s world comes crashing down on the eve of his wedding when an unknown Donny suddenly shows up. Trying desperately to reconnect with his son, Donny is now forced to deal with the hilarious repercussions of his bad parenting skills.

Starring at the movies June 14
www.thatstmyboy.com.au

THANKS TO SONY PICTURES RELEASES

WIN 1 OF 10 DOUBLE PASSES TO
THE AMAZING SPIDER-MAN

The Amazing Spider-Man tells the story of Peter Parker (Garfield), an outcast high schooler who, like most teenagers his age, is trying to figure out who he is and how he got to be the person he is today. In his journey to put the pieces of his mysterious past back together, he uncovers a secret that his father held that will ultimately shape his destiny as Spider-Man. On July 4, the untold story begins.

Starring at the movies, June 4
www.theamazingspiderman.com.au

Email your student number to comp@arc.unsw.edu.au with The Amazing Spider-Man in the subject line.

THANKS TO SONY PICTURES RELEASES

DID YOU KNOW THERE ARE OVER 40 EXCLUSIVE ARC MEMBER DISCOUNTS ON AND OFF CAMPUS?

PENNERTH ICE PALACE
FREE SKATE HIRE
Student tickets are only $7 for entry to any general session.

NORTHERN GREENHOUSE CAFÉS
10% Arc Member discount on accommodation, Backpackers dorms less than $25 a night and apartments less than $30.

RUNNING BARE
SMOKER, NONSMOKER, WOMEN’S, LADIES, LIME AND PEARL MARKET
10% Arc Member discount on all Running Bare sportswear and loungewear ranges (Jasmine and Rivet). Does not include footwear.

BACKYARD PARTY
END OF SESSION PARTY
31 MAY, BARRACKS, TPB
Half-price tickets ($5) for Arc members after 8pm.

Vanessa
Commerce
What’s the defining quality of a bogan? Friendly, funny, they want out a long time ago but among bogans they’re going strong.

Who’s your favourite member of S-Club? Hannah – she just danced and looked good, it looked no effort whatsoever. Any regrets from this semester? Taking a printed sheet instead of a single sheet to the Toga Party.

Jessica
Engineering/Commerce
What’s the defining quality of a bogan? Inexperienced.

What are your plans for the break? Going to Vegas.

What’s your advice for cheating in an exam? Write on the back of a calculator.

James V
Engineering/Commerce
What’s your favourite member of S-Club? Jed.

What are your plans for the break? Going to Montreal for exchange.

Any regrets from this semester? Getting drunk at Laneway and supposedly ruining the whole festival for one of my mates. He wouldn’t talk to me for days.

Maverick
Bachelor of Commerce
What’s the defining quality of a bogan? Lives in the Shire, does van trip photos, wears troughs to weddings, rides a pink stretch hummer to formals, wears fake tan and parties at Sobo.

What are your plans for the break? Ski trip.

What’s your advice for cheating in an exam? Sit next to somebody smart.

Milie
Design
What’s your favourite member of S-Club? No, she got the flow.

What are your plans for the break? Going to Montréal for exchange.

Any regrets from this semester? Getting drunk at Laneway and supposedly ruining the whole festival for one of my mates. He wouldn’t talk to me for days.

Jackie
Commerce/Law
What’s the defining quality of a bogan? Shorts in winter, hairy legs, dirty Hewawans, posses, buttocks and ash blonde hair with stubble.

What are your plans for the break? Going to Penrith on a ski trip with Indecies.

What’s your advice for cheating in an exam? I haven’t done it, but I imagine the easiest trick is to put your notes on the floor in a clever manner. Or leaving notes on your phone and spending a lot of time in the bathroom. Sounds like too much effort though, I’d rather just study.
END OF SESSION

BACKYARD PARTY

5PM THIS THURS - ROUNDHOUSE

FREE ENTRY BEFORE 8PM, THEN ARC MEMBERS $5 - UNSW STUDENTS $10 - GENERAL ADMISSION $15

STARFUCKERS
GUINEAFOWL • THE KHANZ

BOGAN DRESS, OUTDOOR STREET CRICKET

UNSW ROUNDHOUSE.COM

ROUNDHOUSE ENCOURAGES THE RESPONSIBLE SERVICE OF ALCOHOL. 18+ ONLY. VALID IDENTIFICATION REQUIRED UPON ENTRY.