

6

PLACES TO GET STARTED WITH SHARING IN SYDNEY

In this zine
we have provided 6 Sharing & collaboration initiatives in Sydney
to get started with!

THE SHARING MAP

Visit: thesharingmap.com.au

An online directory for sharing initiatives & organisations in Sydney.

All the groups in this zine & more can be found on the Sharing Map.

UNSW MAKERSPACE

Address: F block, ground floor,
UNSWAD

A collaborative space for UNSW students to experiment with art, design & tech.

Makerspace also hosts weekly sessions for UNSW's makers club CREATE; A great chance to learn & collaborate with others

LENTIL AS ANYTHING

Address: 391 King St, Newtown

At Lentil as Anything there are no set prices. When you finish your meal you pay what you believe is appropriate. The restaurant seeks to use food as a tool for community building & cultural exchange.

R

Address: 8/142 Addison Road, Marrickville

E

G

A creative reuse centre. They offer an exorbitant variety of reusable materials & recycled resources
at heavily discounted prices.

V

A

E

R

R

B

S

A

They also offer workshops for creativity, collaboration & waste reduction

E

G

E

YWASTE APP

Visit: www.ywasteapp.com

Ywaste is an app dedicated to reducing food waste.

Instead of throwing away perfectly good but unsold food, vendors can advertise their unsold product on Ywaste at a generous discount.

THOUGHTFUL FOODS CO-OPS

Address:
The Blockhouse, UNSW Main Campus

A food co-operative on UNSW's main campus. It aims to provide cheap &
ethically sourced wholefoods for students. Members & volunteers are also provided discounts.