6.5 Address of Member

- (a) Each Member shall provide to Arc, details of an address where Arc can send notices.
- (b) These details will be recorded on the Arc Member register.
- (c) Where a Member provides an email or other electronic address, Arc discharges its obligation to serve notice on that member under the Constitution or the Corporations Act by sending a copy of any notice required to that email or other electronic address. Members may elect to receive no other correspondence from Arc to this address.

6.6 Application to Become a Member

Every application to become a Member shall be made to Arc in the form prescribed by the Board from time to time and containing such information and undertakings as the Board may reasonably require.

6.7 Notification of Acceptance

Any Member who satisfies the eligibility criteria set out in section 6.3, and who follows the procedure prescribed by section 6.6, will automatically become a Member on payment of the required subscription fee (if any).

6.8 Applicant to Agree to be bound

Every person admitted to membership of Arc shall be deemed to have agreed to be bound by the Constitution and the Regulations and by any other rules, regulations or by-laws of Arc from time to time in force.

6.9 Members Subscriptions

Each Member must pay the subscription fee determined by the Board from time to time (if any).

6.10 Non-payment of Subscription

- (a) If any subscription fee of a Member remains unpaid for more than eight (8) weeks the CEO may suspend all or any privileges of membership of that Member until payment is received in full.
- (b) If any subscription fee of a Member remains unpaid for more than four (4) months the CEO may terminate the membership of that Member and may elect to recover this debt and all additional administrative costs associated with debt recovery.

- (c) A Member may submit in writing to the CEO, an application for waiver of 6.10(a) or 6.10(b). The application will provide detail of the circumstances of hardship or other difficulties associated with the payment of the subscription fee.

6.11 Cessation of Membership

A Member ceases to be a Member if:

- (a) the Member resigns in writing (the resignation being effective on the date the resignation is received by Arc unless another date is stated in the resignation notice); or
- (b) the Member ceases to satisfy the eligibility criteria set out in section 6.3; or
- (c) the Member fails to pay a subscription fee as consistent with section 6.10; or
- (d) the Member dies.

6.12 Effect of Cessation

A Member who ceases to be a Member continues to be liable for:

- (a) any subscription and all arrears due and unpaid at the date of cessation;
- (b) all other moneys due by them to Arc; and
- (c) the Guarantee.

7. Meetings of Members

7.1 Calling Meetings by Directors

- (a) A minimum of four (4) Directors may call a meeting of Members.
- (b) The Board of Directors may call a meeting of Members.

7.2 Calling of General Meetings by Directors When Requested by Members

- (a) Without limiting any applicable provisions of the Corporations Act regarding general meetings of a public company, the Board must call and arrange to hold a general meeting on the request of 50 Members or 5% of the total number of Members, whichever is lower.
- (b) The request must be in writing, state any resolution to be proposed at the meeting, be signed by the Members making the request and given to the Secretary.
- (c) The Directors must call a meeting within 21 days after the request is given to the Secretary and the meeting must be held no later than two (2) months after the request is given to the Secretary.

7.3 Failure of Directors to Call General Meeting

- (a) If Directors do not call a General Meeting within 21 days after the request is given to the Secretary, the Members who made a request under section 7.2 may call a General Meeting.
- (b) The meeting must be called in the same manner, so far as possible, in which General Meetings of Arc are called.
- (c) Arc must pay all reasonable expenses the Members incurred because the Directors failed to call the meeting.

7.4 Calling of General Meetings by Members

- (a) Members with at least 5% of votes that may be cast at a General Meeting of Arc may call and arrange to hold a General Meeting. The Members calling the meeting must pay the expenses of calling and holding the meeting.
- (b) The meeting must be called in the same manner, as far as is possible, in which General Meetings of Arc may be called.

7.5 Date of Meeting

A General Meeting called under this Constitution must be held on an Academic Day, unless a time delay would breach section 7.2, then a general meeting may be held on an Australian working day. The meeting must be called in the same manner, as far as possible, in which general meetings of Arc may be called.

7.6 Notice to Remove a Director or Auditor or Amend Constitution

At least 21 days' notice must be given of a General Meeting at which a resolution will be moved to:

- (a) remove a Director under section 9.10; or
- (b) remove an Auditor; or
- (c) amend this Constitution.

7.7 Resolution to amend Constitution

The Regulations may only be amended, varied or repealed in accordance with the Regulations.

7.9 Written Notice

- (a) Notice of the meeting of Members must be given individually to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting and to each Director.
- (b) Notice will be deemed to have been given if it is sent to the address provided by the Member in their application for membership or subsequent applications by the Member to amend their details on the member register.

7.10 Methods of Notice

- (a) Arc may give the notice of meeting to a Member:
 - (i) by sending it to the address of the Member in the register of Members or the alternative address (if any) nominated by the Member;
 - (ii) by any other means authorised by the Corporations Act.
- (b) Arc must give notice of meetings on its website.

7.11 Post and Other Electronic Means

- (a) A notice of meeting sent by post is taken to be given three days after it is posted.
- (b) A notice of meeting sent by other electronic means is taken to be given on the business day after it is sent.

7.12 Auditor Entitled to Notice and Other Communication

Arc must give its Auditor:

- (a) notice of General Meeting in the same way that a Member is entitled to receive notice; and
- (b) any other communication relating to the General Meeting that a Member is entitled to receive.

7.13 Contents of Notice of Meeting

The notice of meeting must conform to the requirements of the Corporations Act.

7.14 Notice of Adjourned Meetings

When a meeting is adjourned new notice of the resumed meeting must be given if the meeting is adjourned for one month or more.

7.15 Members' Rights to Put Resolutions at the General Meeting

The following Members may give Arc notice of a resolution that they propose to move at a general meeting:

- (a) Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution;
- (b) at least 50 Members who are entitled to vote at a general meeting, whichever is lower.

The notice must:

- (i) be in writing;
- (ii) set out the wording of the resolution;
- (iii) be signed by the Members proposing to move the resolution; and
- (iv) delivered to the Secretary not less than 10 days prior to the date of the proposed meeting.

Arc must ensure that notice of the proposed resolution is given at least six (6) days prior to the date of the proposed meeting according to the method of notice as defined in section 7.10 of this Constitution.

Arc need not give notice of the resolution if it is defamatory.

7.16 Technology

Arc may hold a meeting of its Members at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.

7.17 Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of Members is 50 Members who are entitled to vote at the meeting or 5% of the total number of Members, whichever is the lesser. Quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.

7.18 Determining Presence of Quorum

In determining whether a quorum is present:

- (a) All members and individuals attending as proxies or Authorised Representatives are to be counted towards quorum; and
- (b) All proxies held by the Chair are to be counted towards quorum.

7.19 Adjournment of Meeting

- (a) A meeting that does not have a quorum present within 30 minutes after the meeting time set out in the notice of meeting is to be adjourned to a date, time and place as the Chair specifies.
- (b) If the Chair does not specify one or more of those requirements, the meeting is adjourned as follows:
 - (i) to the same day of the next week, if the date is not specified;
 - (ii) to the same time, if the time is not specified; or
 - (iii) to the same place, if the place is not specified.

7.20 Chairing Meetings of Members

- (a) The Chair of Members' Meetings shall be the Chair of Directors' Meetings.
- (b) If the Chair of Directors' Meetings is not available or willing to act as Chair of a Member's Meeting, a Member present at the meeting elected by the majority of Members present shall preside as Chair for that meeting.

7.21 Auditor's Right to be heard at Meetings of Members

The Auditor is entitled to attend meetings and be heard at the meeting on any part of the business of the meeting that concerns the Auditor in their capacity as Auditor. The Auditor is entitled to be heard even if:

- (a) the Auditor retires at the meeting; or
- (b) the meeting passes a resolution to remove the Auditor from office.

7.22 Authorised Representative of Auditor

The Auditor may authorise a person, provided in writing to the Secretary as their representative for the purpose of attending and speaking at any General Meeting.

7.23 Proxies

- (a) A Member who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of Members may appoint a proxy to attend and vote for the Member at that meeting.
- (b) Any proxy must be appointed in accordance with, and has the rights set out in, the Corporations Act.
- (c) The form of proxy to be used shall be as near as possible to the form set out in Schedule 1 of this Constitution which must be completed and returned to the Secretary not less than 48 hours prior to the meeting to which the proxy appointment relates.
- (d) A proxy does not have to be a member of Arc.

7.24 Voting at Meetings of Members

At a meeting of Members each Member present and eligible to vote (in accordance with section 6.4 of this Constitution), shall have one vote.

7.25 Objections to Right to Vote

A challenge to a right to vote at a meeting of Members:

- (a) may only be made at the meeting; and
- (b) must be determined by the Chair whose decision is final.

14.1 No participation by Members

If Arc is wound up or dissolved, the Members have no right to participate in any distribution or payment of the assets or property of Arc.

14.2 Distribution of Assets

If Arc is wound up or dissolved, the assets and property available for distribution after satisfaction of all debts and liabilities shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions:

- (a) having objects similar to the objects of Arc;

- (b) benefiting the students of the University; and,
- (c) whose constitution prohibits the distribution of its income and property to an extent at least as great as that imposed by section 3.2.

15. Indemnity

15.1 Liability to another Person

Every person who is an Officer shall be indemnified by Arc against, and shall be paid on demand by the Officer, the amount of any liability to another person (other than Arc or a related body corporate of Arc as defined in the Corporations Act) incurred in that person's capacity as an Officer unless such liability arises out of conduct involving a lack of good faith.

15.2 Directors' Discretion

Arc shall indemnify a Director or Officer of Arc at the Directors' discretion.

15.3 Indemnity Against Costs and Expenses

Arc shall indemnify an Officer against a liability for costs and expenses (including, without limitation, legal expenses on a full indemnity basis) incurred in that person's capacity as an Officer, unless such liability arises out of conduct involving a lack of good faith:

- (a) in defending proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which:
 - (i) judgment is given in favour of the Officer; or
 - (ii) the Officer is acquitted; or
- (b) in connection with an application, in relation to proceedings under section 15.3(a), in which a court grants relief to the Officer under the Corporations Act, subject only to an obligation on the Officer to repay to Arc the expenses advanced by Arc if:

- (a) judgment is not given in the Officer's favour;
- (b) the Officer is not acquitted;
- (c) a court subsequently determines that the indemnification is not permitted; or
- (d) the indemnification is not permitted by the Corporations Act.

15.4 Contract Between Arc and Parties

The indemnification rights in this Article constitute a contract between the relevant parties seeking indemnification and Arc and shall continue to have effect following the rescission or restrictive modification of the Article with respect to events occurring prior to the rescission or modification of the Article.

16. Contract of Insurance

Arc may pay a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an Officer to the maximum extent permitted by the Corporations Act, including against:

- (a) any liability incurred by the Officer which does not arise out of conduct involving a wilful breach of duty; or

- (b) any liability for costs and expenses incurred by that person in defending proceedings relating to that person's position with Arc whether civil or criminal and whatever their outcome.
