

PROGRAM & POSITION OVERVIEW

Gamamari is THE student media organisation at UNSW. For over 70 years, this publication has been bringing students news and stories from all around campus. The publication is committed to representing and giving a voice to those who have important stories to share, those who are discovering and creating new and exciting things, and those who may otherwise go unnoticed.

Position Title	Volunteer
Organisation	Arc @ UNSW
Location	Kensington Campus
Duration	3 Terms
Columnist Time Commitment	3 hrs/week *may vary throughout term
Content Creator Time Commitment	3 hrs/week *may vary throughout term
Designer Time Commitment	4-5 hrs/week *may vary throughout term

Eligibility Criteria

- Be a UNSW Student for the duration of the volunteering period
- Attend mandatory training days/sessions

Rewards & Outcomes

General Volunteers:

- AHEGS accreditation
- Microcredentials
- Mentorship
- Opportunities to be in events and interact with and interview authors, filmmakers, musicians, NGOs

Senior Volunteers:

- Leadership opportunities

Key Responsibilities

Columnist:

- help make videos
- pitch and publish pieces of your choice
- Be a part of a team environment

Content Creator:

- make videos
- help out on soundstage shoots

Designer:

- design social media assets
- continue to define Gamamari's brand

Skills Gained

General Volunteers:

- Communication
- Teamwork
- Organisational and time management
- Content and media creation

Senior Volunteers:

- Critical thinking
- Leadership
- Volunteer Management

Note: This is a volunteer position and does not offer monetary compensation. Submit your application via the Rubric Platform (link available on website)