

Arc @UNSW Social Sport and Dance Course Terms and Conditions of Participation

Code of Conduct:

Arc @UNSW Sport aims to provide an organised sporting environment that is free from harassment, discrimination and bullying where all those involved in its activities are treated with dignity, equality and respect. Discrimination, harassment and bullying are extremely distressing, offensive, humiliating and may create an uncomfortable and unpleasant environment. Discrimination, harassment and bullying are against the law. All of those involved in Arc Social Sport cannot enjoy themselves if such behaviour is present in any form.

This code of conduct is designed to ensure that all those participating in Arc Social Sport understand the correct manner in which to behave at all times, to ensure that all participants have a relaxed and enjoyable experience. All participants involved in social sports shall by means of their participation recognise and agree to be bound by the code of conduct. Any breach of this code is regarded as a serious matter by Arc @UNSW Sport and disciplinary action may be enforced against a person(s) in breach of this code. All disciplinary actions shall be enforced across all competitions for 2019 Arc Social Sport.

All participants in Arc Social Sport are bound to...

1. Always remember this is a social sport competition and we are all here to have fun!
2. Be a good sport. Always encourage everyone including your opposition, referees, and team mates. Applaud ALL good plays whether or not they are made by the opposition.
3. Treat all participants in your competition and other competitions as you would want to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor or referee.
4. Cooperate with your captain, team-mates, umpires, staff and opponents. Without them there would be no competition.
5. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
6. Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials and sledging other players, deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent are not acceptable or permitted behaviours in any sport.
7. Any physical altercations and unnecessary physical aggression will not be tolerated.
8. Condemn the use of violence in any form, no matter who it occurs between.
9. Do not mix alcohol with sport. Participants will not be permitted to take part if they are suspected of being under the influence of alcohol or any illegal substances.
10. Leave all competition areas tidy and free from litter or other mess.

Conduct deemed foul play may include but is not limited to...

verbal abuse and/ or threatening actions towards any participants, physical abuse of any participant's including striking, hair pulling, or grabbing, dangerous charging/ obstructing an opponent without away from the play, contact with the eyes or eye area, spitting at participants, verbal abuse based on race, religion, culture, ethnicity, sexual orientation or otherwise any other acts (not previously referred to) which are contrary to good sportsmanship.

Offending parties may be immediately ejected from the match and banned from all social sport competitions for a nominated period of time. Poor team behaviour may result in the removal of that entire team from all competitions for a nominated period of time. Arc Sport may at its sole discretion exclude a participant or team from further competition where it is deemed that the conduct of a player or team is sufficient to warrant exclusion.
