

UNSW IT presents:

Cyber Security Summit

TUE 28 MAY

Welcome

On behalf of the UNSW IT Cyber Security team, it gives me great pleasure to invite you to the UNSW Cyber Security Summit.

The Summit has been designed to bring our diverse University community together to raise awareness of the evolving cyber security threats, foster greater engagement and collaboration across our operational, academic, and research cohorts, and highlight our important role in protecting the University.

The UNSW Cyber Security team and our technology and services partners will be participating in the event, showcasing some of the capabilities and services that we offer to UNSW, and across the day there will be a series of keynote presentations, panel discussions, and interactive workshops where we will be joined by prominent figures from across UNSW, Australian government, and industry, including:

Attila Brungs | Vice Chancellor, UNSW
Toby Walsh | Chief Scientist, AI Institute, UNSW
The Hon Victor Dominello | Professor of Practice, UNSW
Alastair MacGibbon | Chief Strategy Officer, CyberCX
Dr. Yenni Tim | Associate Professor, UNSW
Richard Buckland | Director- First Year Experience, UNSW

During the event, there will be ample opportunity to network with the UNSW Cyber Security community, including staff, students and industry partners and to gain insights into cyber security tools, processes and practices implemented at UNSW.

Our full day program allows you to craft your own itinerary. You may choose between the following tracks:

Track A focuses on presentations and discussions centered around cyber security insights tailored specifically for the university sector. This track will explore topics such as the latest threat intelligence insights, the importance of security culture, advancements in Artificial Intelligence (AI) intersecting with cyber security, securing cloud infrastructure, and navigating emerging trends in information systems. Expert speakers from UNSW, government, and partner organisations will share knowledge and practical strategies to enhance cyber security resilience within academic, research and operational environments.

Track B focuses on a diverse range of interactive sessions and hands-on activities aimed at enhancing your cyber security skills and knowledge. This track includes a capture the flag session, secure coding tournament and discussions on enhancing cyber security at the University. These sessions will equip you with the tools and knowledge that will assist you in effectively managing cyber security threats within higher education institutions.

We warmly extend the invitation for UNSW staff, researchers, and invited guests to join the Summit. Thank you for registering and I look forward to seeing you on the day.

Derek Winter
UNSW Director of Cyber Security and
Chief Information Security Officer (CISO)
