

PROGRAM & POSITION OVERVIEW

The mega-extravagant-amazing-wonderful event that is the UNSW O-Week is a huge success because of the hard work, commitment and fun-loving spirit of the Yellow Shirts. Joining Yellow Shirts provides you with lifelong friends, skills and a summer full of memories, connections, and experiences you won't find anywhere else.

Position Title	Volunteer
Organisation	Arc @ UNSW
Location	Kensington Campus
Duration	3-5 months starting November
General Volunteer Time Commitment	3 Training Days (9am - 6pm), 5 O-Week days (8am - 7pm), 1 Training Camp (9am - 6pm for 2 days, 10am - 3pm for 1 day)
Senior Volunteer Time Commitment	5 SLOT Training Days, 1 SLOT Training Camp, 3 Training Days, 5 O-Week days, 1 Training Camp

Eligibility Criteria

- Be a UNSW Student for the duration of the volunteering period
- Attend mandatory training days/sessions

Rewards & Outcomes

General Volunteers:

- AHEGS Accreditation
- Microcredentials
- Community & friendship
- Mentorship
- A chance to be a part of a legacy

Senior Volunteers:

- Leadership opportunities

Key Responsibilities

General Volunteers:

- Orient first years at O-week
- Run various shifts

Senior Volunteers:

- Lead general volunteers
- Work with corresponding portfolio Organising Team member

Skills Gained

General Volunteers:

- Communications
- Teamwork
- Organisational and time management

Senior Volunteers:

- Critical Thinking
- Leadership
- Volunteer management

Note: This is a volunteer position and does not offer monetary compensation. Submit your application via the Rubric Platform (link available on website)